

THE AMERICAN AND HIS CONTINENT. BY MAX O'REILL AND JACK ALLY.

Translated by Miss Paul Booth. Copyrighted by Cassell & Co., New York. We publish the following extracts from this book by Special Arrangement through the American Press Association.

Paul Booth (Max O'Reill) is a remarkably clever Frenchman, who has devoted his life to studying the Anglo-Saxon race. He has been widely known as the author of "John Bull and His Island," "John Bull, Jr.," etc. This book is his latest production, the material for it being gathered during his recent visit to America.

CHAPTER XXVI. Lynch law is a summary justice which, in the eyes of the ordinary citizen, is the only justice which is left to him. It is a summary justice which, in the eyes of the ordinary citizen, is the only justice which is left to him.

CHAPTER XXVII. The president is the most accessible citizen in the great Republic of the New World. Three times a week he descends to the ground floor of the White House.

CHAPTER XXVIII. The president is the most accessible citizen in the great Republic of the New World. Three times a week he descends to the ground floor of the White House.

CHAPTER XXIX. As I have said elsewhere, the state of the Union makes its own laws. The result is that a thing which is legal in one state is not necessarily legal in another.

CHAPTER XXX. The city of Chicago alone produces more than a hundred and sixty-eight lawyers, all thriving.

CHAPTER XXXI. In America, the political parties are liberal professions—very liberal professions which take it in turn to govern the country.

CHAPTER XXXII. Nothing is ordinary in America. The ordinary American himself is extraordinary.

CHAPTER XXXIII. The city of Chicago alone produces more than a hundred and sixty-eight lawyers, all thriving.

CHAPTER XXXIV. The city of Chicago alone produces more than a hundred and sixty-eight lawyers, all thriving.

CHAPTER XXXV. The city of Chicago alone produces more than a hundred and sixty-eight lawyers, all thriving.

CHAPTER XXXVI. The city of Chicago alone produces more than a hundred and sixty-eight lawyers, all thriving.

CHAPTER XXXVII. The city of Chicago alone produces more than a hundred and sixty-eight lawyers, all thriving.

CHAPTER XXXVIII. The city of Chicago alone produces more than a hundred and sixty-eight lawyers, all thriving.

CHAPTER XXXIX. The city of Chicago alone produces more than a hundred and sixty-eight lawyers, all thriving.

The prospect that Duffield may receive the appointment of Solicitor-General has been brightening somewhat during the past few days.

The last will and testament of Moses W. Field has been ordered for probate in the Wayne county Circuit Court.

Mayor Grand of New York had a different mind from that of ex-mayor Hewitt. He saw no propriety in allowing the people to vote on the City Hall on St. Patrick's day.

The search for Tascott on the part of officers and detectives from Chicago seems to have proven unavailing.

Col. Dudley and John C. New of Indiana, both prominent republicans and supporters of the President during the late political campaign seem not to be receiving their full share of recognition from the administration.

It is extremely improbable that Associate Justice Matthews of the Supreme Court will ever be able to resume active duties on the bench.

The resignation of Mr. Chase as United States Senator from Rhode Island removes from that body an able representative of the republican party.

There promises to be a great fight over the fortified railroad lands in the Upper Peninsula. An almost endless series of litigation seems to be starting.

Whitfield Reid for the French Mission. One of the foremost men of the republican party and an intimate friend of Jas. G. Blaine has captured a fine plum in the nature of one of the foremost foreign appointments.

There are some who would be pleased to see Col. Fred Grant receive the appointment of Minister to China.

Editors Journal:—By your permission I wish to say a few words to my neighbors through the columns of your paper.

The voters of the State of Michigan will be given an opportunity at the spring election to say whether they are willing to allow their Governor a reasonable salary of $4,000 per year.

There is no reason why her state officials, and particularly her Governor should not receive a fair recompense for his services to the State.
