CONVENTIONS

"Don't you think it is perfectly splendid the way we are getting away from convention? We are getting young married women asked the other day, "Why, my mother would have thought it was a disgrace to serve dinner without a table cloth and linen napkins, and she would have thought we were going to land in the poor house if we had had breakfast in the kitchen. But we have given up table cloths entirely, laundry is so expensive, and we never use anything but paper napkins. What's more, some of the most aristocratic people I know are having breakfast nooks in their kitchens and don't ever intend to have breakfast in the dining room. Isn't it perfectly wonderful?"

And, of course, I agreed that it was well that we could alter our customs to suit the times without actually lowering our standards. And she went on:

"And it is just the same with other things. Tom doesn't in the least mind having the boys and girls and I suppose he keeps up with the girls he used to know. I go to dances without him if I choose and accept invitations from men to lunch—it is all part of this new disregard for conventions. It's just like paper napkins—mother would have been horrified at the idea of either, but mother wasn't advanced."

And I suppose that there are some

NEVER before has the amazing Knight sleeve-valve motor been available in so fine a car at so low a price. Europe uses the Knight motor in her most famous and expensive cars. Now Willys engineering, Willys quantity production, put it in the reach of all in a car equally famous, but far less costly.

The Motor
The Willys-Knight motor is the highest development of the Knight sleeve-valve principle. It gives more power out of less gas than any other motor of its size and weight. It is free from valve trouble, free from carbon trouble, smooth, quiet, flexible. Scientific tests and driver experience show that it governs more powerfully with ease. And its life-time has never yet been questioned.

The Car
The Willys-Knight Car is especially designed to match the motor in long life and distinction. Graceful, refined, dignified, its sturdy steel chassis boasts of its safety and holds the body permanently free from rattle and squeak. Vigilant springs translate the roll of the road into undulating ease. It is fast, comfortable, responsible—and a sound investment.

Base Ball at Davidson Field Sunday

Eaton Rapids 7
Prison Team 2

Through the effective pitching of Peck and Doll Eaton Rapids easily won from the prison team and started the season out in very good shape. Peck's fast balls had the prison batters baffled for 5 innings, but in the 6th, 3 hits were taken from his delivery, which consisted of 2 singles and a double, netting the prison team 2 runs which was the last time they crossed the plate. Doll started the 7th inning and held them hitless and runless for the remainder of the game. Both pitchers had very good control, only one pass being issued, and this one by Peck.

The team in general played very good ball, especially on the offensive. Peck pitched 15 out of the delivery of Coleman, who pitched for the prison team, of which 7 were doubles and the others of a healthy variety.

For the first time in playing together, the team promised to develop into a very fast organization, and from the attitude of the fans which accompanied the game, it was evident that they were well satisfied with the showing they made.

Next Sunday afternoon, May 21, Eaton Rapids will play the Lansing Independents at Davidson's park.

59th Anniversary

The fifty-ninth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. David Bradford was properly observed at the country home in Hilldale Sunday by over two hundred people who called to pay their respects during the afternoon and several remained with these genial old people all the sun was casting its last rays in the evening. There were many bouquets of beautiful flowers as expressions of esteem and good will, and on behalf of the visitors, John W. Banker presented each with a large leather upholstered chair, a rocker for "Aunt" Luna and an easy arm chair for "Uncle" Dave.

Mrs. Ada Bradford read an original poem appropriate to the occasion and there was music of course, and during the afternoon the cream of the good, home-made cake were served in great abundance. It was a happy afternoon all around, and the host and hostess enjoyed it much as any of the youth's generation.

Mr. Bradford was born near Spring Arbor in 1837, the year that Michigan was admitted as a state; and Mrs. Bradford is a native of Ohio where she was born in 1842, coming to Michigan with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Noble, who located on the farm when she was only three years of age. During practically all of their happy lives, this spot has been their home and to them the place has become sacred ground, fraught with the memories of the joys and sorrows of lives that have been without blemish. Their doors have always been open to the unending throng of the Journal man can attest to the fact that their home in his boyhood days was a rendezvous for young pleasure seekers, and the people of the candy-pulls, the warm sugar socials, the "bussing-bees" and even an occasional innocent dancing party are still fresh in his memory. They were always young with the young people, and even now, at four score years and more, they are young in spirit and happy in contentment.

Would that the world were full of just such fine people as "Uncle" Dave and "Aunt" Luna!

Warren Said Something

Believing that to move the hands of the clock forward in a "spring" was self-deception, and insisting that the same object may be obtained by asking everybody to get up an hour (sooner) during the summer season, President Harding has ordered that the departments at Washington be opened for business at 8:00 o'clock in instead of 9:00 o'clock. Now that is perfectly all right to make those poor overworked "setters" plunk them selves in the government swivel chairs at such an unearthly early hour, Mr. President! They should certainly be let off at high noon each day and have Saturday to themselves as a recompense for such servitude.

The estimated rate on the school taxes as printed in the large advertisement on another page, are based entirely upon the present assessed valuation of the school district; and as our valuations increase—and we all know that such valuation is bound to double. This would cut the school tax just one half.

Small Vote Polled
Power Proposition Lost—Fast Time Carried

The special election last Monday called out a very light vote there being but 506 ballots polled in the entire city. The last precinct gave 114 votes in favor of the power contract and 168 against it while the 2nd precinct gave 62 for and 102 against, the majority being 164 "No."

In accordance with the result of the election as above stated, the commission has instructed the mayor to enter into negotiations with the Consumers Power Co. on the proposition of a year's contract and report at the next regular meeting, and the recommendation of the commission is that they be adopted effective next Sunday night.

Hague Park Opening

Knowing the condition of the country the last few years and the general depression of things Mr. Odell general manager and owner of Hague Park, Jackson, Mich., is opening the famous resort earlier than usual to have us forget the past and be for the future and present and as there is no better proposition than the city adopt eastern time effective next Sunday night.

E. O. FLAHERTY

Edwin O. Flaherty, who lived on his county-line farm north-east of this city for thirty-three years and moved to Lansing eleven years ago, passed his reward at his home in asking everybody to get up an hour (sooner) during the summer season, President Harding has ordered that the departments at Washington be opened for business at 8:00 o'clock in instead of 9:00 o'clock. Now that is perfectly all right to make those poor overworked "setters" plunk them selves in the government swivel chairs at such an unearthly early hour, Mr. President! They should certainly be let off at high noon each day and have Saturday to themselves as a recompense for such servitude.

The Aurelius Memorial Day exercises will be held at the church Sunday May 28th with special music and a public speaker for the occasion, at the conclusion of which a line of March will be formed and all will repair to the cemetery for the purpose of decorating the graves of fallen soldiers.

CLARK L. BELNAP TAILORING FOR MEN Van Buren at Market Street Chicago. NATURE never duplicates. Each man is different—even to his finger prints. Some stand erect—others stoop. Some have square—others sloping shoulders. Each has a different attitude, Ed. V. Price & Co. has built a great business on this fact.

SCHOOL DAYS

Uncommon Sense

INSPIRATION

The picture was taken at an outing of the Bond club. The banker served as pitcher for the New York team.

Of course there is a good many men who started in the banking business when they were young.

Our object in referring to this particular case is to call attention to the fact that if you want inspiration in your work you get it in the newspaper—plenty of it.

Brief bits of biography such as the one we have cited appear almost every day.

Seldom is a prominent man's name mentioned in connection with an important affair that you do not learn something about how he started and why he succeeded.

If you want to read about the failures—and the horrible examples, you can read about them, too.

While this man was rising from a bank clerk to a bank president, another man who started in an insignificant office of a bank—effort because his father owned most of it—went down.

All human history is epitomized in the daily news.

Read the papers. Think about what you read. Allow that if you don't succeed, it will not be because nobody told you how.

Systematic Accumulation. "How did prices get so high in the first place?" inquired the plain citizen.

"Well," replied Mr. Dustin Stax, "the more profit you made the more money you had to pay, and the more money you had to pay the more profit you had to make."

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB I like to walk on summer nights. The air with mystery just teems, and rushing past me I can feel the sleeping peoples coming dreams.

Something to Think About

By F. A. WALKER

GETTING RESULTS

BY LEARNING things rather than words, observing closely how things are done to produce results, keeping in intimate touch with improved methods, making current mental analysis of the failure or the success of others, and applying the practical information thus gained, ought to be the dominating purpose of every man or woman who earnestly desires to get out of and away from the packed and beaten road.

To think along the same grooved path after day and possibly using the same unproductive form of reasoning, grows obstructive by frequent handling, contracts the mind and weakens it.

If you do not go ahead among new thoughts, you can never hope to create new things.

If you fall to lay hold of the forces within you, and thus become a part of the ever-expanding universe, you may set it down that you are marked for a mere imitating plodder, of which the world at present has a tremendous over-supply.

No harm can come to you in exploring new fields.

It is better to fall in untried effort than justifiably to avoid it, for by exerting yourself you may quite unexpectedly arouse some dormant capability of whose existence you had not the slightest suspicion.

Life is a search for substance on which life depends.

It is through this search that we discover things and get from them useful results.

To take no part in this ever-expanding search is to admit defeat.

You cannot long continue in the chase of honor and fame, without soon feeling the exhilarating thrill of the emboldening adventure.

And when your blood runs hot your brain tingles with clearing vision, and your whole being becomes attuned to eager aims and cry in joyous voice for more, more!

And the beautiful part of such experience is that what in your days of slackerness you considered dreary, barren of results, resolves itself into a thing of inspiration, bearing you on strong, swift wings to the top of your dreamland hill.

KIDDIES SIX

THE REASON

I OFFER you a piece of pie, a slice of bread, three small apples, that's equal to the very best that mother used to bake.

And mother was a famous cook. Known all the country, for she was famous for putting up the best of meats. That hungry children knew.

I used to think that modern cooks had lost the noble art. But after long reflection I response their cause and part.

So when some scientific man explains, "And calls their art in question, I know just what the matter is—It's simply indigestion."

WHY?

ARE BIRDS' EGGS OF DIFFERENT COLORS

ONE of Nature's very wise provisions is in equipping all living things with protection of some kind against their enemies.

The larger animals are able, by reason of their strength, to give a good account of themselves in combat.

Birds and many of the smaller animals depend principally upon the rapidity of their movements. But there is still another and most effective means of self-protection known as "protective coloration."

Snakes form an excellent illustration of it. In the case of many species of fish, their scales are so colored that they blend in with the surrounding rocks or the shadows of the water, making them almost invisible to the eye.

In fact, it is only when one of these "protectively-colored" animals moves that its presence is apparent. This same principle is responsible for the different colors of birds' eggs.

The mother bird is not able to fight as gracefully as the hawk to seek refuge in flight. During the time that she is away from the nest, either while seeking safety from her enemies or while looking for food, the eggs must be protected in some manner. It is for this reason that they are colored to blend in with the surroundings in which they are laid—some are spotted because they are laid in the sand or among pebbles, others buff-colored, as shown by the material of the nest.
