Local citizens to think about

By MAURICE WILSON
Lionel Secretary, Charlotte Mich.

One of the finest projects we have undertaken was climaxed with the official opening of the Charlotte Youth Center, which is capable of adequately serving the needs of all teen-age citizens of this community. The idea was conceived by the pupils of Charlotte high school who came to the boys and girls committee of the Lions Club for assistance in promoting their plan. A building belonging to a club member was rented at a very reasonable rate, and has been remodeled by the Lions, with the help of the boys of the organization and friends in the city. New lighting has been installed, toilets built with all new fixtures and plumbing, and considerable carpentry work done to make the building comfortable and to conform to the building and safety codes. A computer and bar have been installed where candy and soft drinks may be purchased at the usual prices. Leather and chrome booths were purchased from a closed restaurant at low prices and tables were placed for quiet relaxation, and game rooms with billiard, pool, pinball and card tables give opportunities for more vigorous fun. Ample room is available for extension of service as the need may arise.

W. E. Webster Stricken

One of Oldest Business Men of City Died from Heart Attack at Home Friday Evening

William E. Webster, 78, died at his home here Friday evening, September 3, following a few hours' illness. Funeral services were conducted in the Congregational church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. Dr. Victor Brown officiating. Burial took place in the Rose Hill Mausoleum.

Mr. Webster enjoyed fairly good health during recent years, was suddenly taken ill last Friday and reported his death as the result of a heart attack.

He was president of the National Bank of Eaton Rapids, chairman of the board of education, member of the Masonic fraternity, a Knight Templar, and former member of the city commission and active in several other organizations. All during his adult lifetime he had been interested in civic affairs and when called on gave considerable of his time and attention to matters concerning the welfare of the community.

Pal bearers were Roland Topf, Don Peacock, Merle Reese, Clair Rockwood, Harold Howe and Willard Debragane, some of them being employees of the deceased. Honorary pal bearers were Edward Florian, R. J. Toneray, George Pettit, Henry Kenney, Hugh M. Hall, Wm. Kenney, Ralph Blackmore and John Sibley.

The church was filled to capacity and the floral pieces were exceptionally beautiful and profuse.

Crop Insurance Program

Latest figures on federal crop insurance sales were given to a local reporter today by a member of the county A.A. committee. In charge of the Federal Crop Insurance program, so far, 794 farmers in Eaton county have purchased government protection on their 1945 wheat crop.

The county committee explained that crop insurance was designed so that the loss of a crop from hazards beyond the control of farmers would be taken care of by an agency large enough to cover the entire Nation's normal wheat producing area. Under this plan, insurance on the 1945 wheat crop is being offered by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

Most people realize that when they purchase crop insurance they are not protecting themselves and their own incomes, but helping to stabilize the economy of the entire community. We have all come to know that the income of the city person is dependent to a great extent on the income of the farmer, and vice versa.

Dele P. Brown, 23, station attendant, and Lois M. Brown, 28, at home, both of Eaton Rapids, have secured a license to marry.

Marie Style Shop Remodeled

Who has operated store for several years

The Marie Style Shop has been completely remodeled for her grand reopening starting this week Saturday, September 8. The store has been sectioned with all accessories in front, featuring purses, gloves, scarves, neckwear, jewelry and handies. Continuing in the lingerie section and on the opposite aisle a complete sportswear section. The millinery, dress, suit and coat area is found toward the rear.

A pleasing color scheme of pastel orchid with dunbonnet accents provides a harmonious background for the lovely apparel being displayed. A lavish use of mirrors adds spaciousness and beauty. A mirrored column centers the floor. Daylight lighting in ceiling fixtures and wall sconces provides a restful effect. In fact, everything has been done with the idea in mind to provide a comfortable and pleasant shopping atmosphere.

All of the first floor of the store is given to selling space. Marie enjoys a clientele of customers from the surrounding territory and is inaugurating a new advertising program by way of a radio broadcast starting September 24 at 7:00 p. m. over Lansing WJLM, Lansing, Mich.

In completely remodeling her store Marie has expressed her faith in Eaton Rapids and shown her appreciation of the loyal patronage she has enjoyed for the past several years. She also expressed her sincere appreciation to all those who have had a part in the remodeling and redecorating. All of these have been local tradesmen and have co-operated to the 2nd degree.

Com. Chest 1945 Budget

Net Budget $2,000 for 1946. Less Than Half for Last Year. Sam Sage Fills Vacancy, James Corbett, Chairman

At a recent meeting of the Eaton Rapids Community Chest committee the following budget was adopted:

United War Fund	$115.00
Michigan Children's Aid	150.00
St. Columban's	400.00
Goodwill Club (local charity)	75.00
Community Activity Fund	1103.00
Total	$3103.00
Less Am't. on hand	1103.00
Net Budget	$2000.00

The above budget is a drastic reduction from last year when the amount was $4200. Due to the War's end and in view of the fact that new funds are intended for 1946 financing, the United War Fund quota was substantially reduced. At the time the original request was made the end of the war was not foreseen and a long range policy was necessary.

Sam Sage was elected to fill the vacancy caused by removal from the city of H. A. Nelson. James Corbett was elected chairman to succeed Mr. Nelson for the coming campaign.

Farm Equipment Meeting

Two electrical farm and home equipment meetings will be held in Eaton county next week, Tuesday, September 12. The first is scheduled for 1:30 p. m. at the Diamonda Grange hall, the second at 8:00 p. m. at the Emma Grange hall, 6 miles south of Charlotte.

Specialists in home economics and electrical engineering from MSC will be present to discuss new developments in home and farm electrical appliances, gadgets and machinery. Hundreds of Eaton county farms and home makers are waiting for an opportunity to purchase new machinery and equipment.

Meetings have been arranged to assist prospective buyers in purchasing practical and up-to-date articles.

Summer Millinery Is Most Exciting

Huge-Brimmed Black Hats, Film Strips Lead Parade.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Never were millinery fashions so varied, so temperamental in mood. There is such a bewilderment of types included in this season's collections you can hardly go wrong as far as being in style is concerned, no matter what you may choose.

Perfectly beautiful large black hats will be worn this summer. Worn with the modish black dinner gown or the slim black daytime frock, these tiny black hat creations present an arresting theme.

When first you see these lovely summer creations you feel a thrill of surprise, because they bespeak a new millinery outlook. Their loveliness grows on you and the fact that they are so utterly summing and feminine in theme, right into the scheme of things during the coming months.

Another new millinery gesture that bids for applause is the adorable hat made of starched laces, either white or pastel. These hats set a new high in the art of hat design. You can see anything from lace Dutch bonnets to cotton lace-covered "silly" type sailors in the new showings.

For women who prefer little hats rather than wide brims, the new flower wreath on a lace band which carries definite appeal. These are having a tremendous vogue.

Big Sailor Is 'In'

The return of the big sailor (the bigger the smarter) is latest millinery fashion news. The Knox Girl Sailor as above pictured bespeak a girly, gay 90 mood caught in a current mode. Hand some grosgrain ribbon encircling the crown, enhances the huge felt sailor shown at the top. The other styles of summer's straw is ever so chic, and you'll find that it will go with your smart suit and your gay cocktail frocks to perfection. Have you ever seen bigger brims and crisper lines with a more provocative let's-take-a-walk-in-the-park air about them? He assured the big sailor is in for a triumphant career this summer.

There's a big vogue on for costume accessories to be made of the very same material that fashions the dress. In a recent visit to the millinery department, I saw a number of hats with matching hats, gloves, bags, belts and parasols. If you are handy with your needle, make most of these accessories.

Mercy in the Midst of War

Carrying their own weapons of mercy, men of the Army Medical Department (above) give first aid under fire, then are wounded back to evacuation hospitals (right).

Carrying on in mud and jungles and in the South Pacific, the Medical Dept. transfers wounded from a landing craft to a waiting evacuation hospital. Below, a Division of Chrysler Corporation equipped the corps with their many thousands of these dependable, air-conditioned ambulances.

Orange Juice

Sliced oranges give more vitamin C than orange juice and unstrained juice more than strained juice. Strained orange juice contains only from a half to three-fourths the amount of vitamin C contained in the segments, so it is the most extravagant way to use oranges.
