An Open Letter to Our Football Coach and Others Who May Be Concerned

First, we are sorry for you, Mr. Dietrich, because you find it in your heart to hate our son. We are sorry for our son, because he heard you say so. To us he has been a wonderful and loving son - one who has never given us any cause for worry and we are sure he is incapable of doing or saying mean or vicious things. Consequently it came as a severe shock to find that someone - presumably an intelligent adult delegated to work with young people in our schools - is not only hates him but told him so.

We first learned of this animosity toward our son the night he told us he had gone to the school dance and was told he could not go in an apparently he was on the list of "long-haired geeks". He was not only told he could not go in but was shoved roughly by the father of one of the football players - all permissible we suppose because he is also a state trooper. It seems there were other boys also manhandled - one, in fact, had his shirt almost ripped off. Perhaps this "state trooper" should be awarded some type of medal for the fine display of manhood. And if medals are given, perhaps you should be a recipient, Mr. Dietrich, for the fine tirade you delivered in assembly a few days ago, aimed, as you said, at only 15, 20 or 30 of the total student body - none of whom were "fit to pick up the underwear" of a boy you knew who was killed in Vietnam.

Did you know, Mr. Dietrich, that two of these boys to whom you directed these remarks had an older brother or also killed in Vietnam? Now we know you were not hired as a psychologist but good common sense and a little knowledge of boys would certainly have prevented you from making such a speech. We can't help but think you must have had some second thoughts about this. Perhaps it can be explained by the pressures you are under to "win" with a winning football team. Personally, we think you missed a great opportunity. You could have made a speech that might have appealed to the better side of these boys and you must believe they have one. You succeeded admirably if your intention was to agitate them.

It so happens that our son was not involved in any of the "incidents". We have talked with several persons, including administrative personnel, and have found to our surprise that our son was accused. Apparently because his hair is longer than usual, he does not play football, and is not part of the "in" group, he is guilty by association. He has friends on the football team as well as some that are in the "excluded" group. We do not tell him to choose his friends by the length of their hair. We feel we have instilled in him the capacity to use good judgment which enables him to be a part of any group and still conduct himself properly no matter what the circumstances. But should he make a bad mistake along the way - we'll forgive him.

We have met some of the boys on this so-called list - perhaps we saw their best side - but we are sure they are not all "idiots". Maybe all they need is someone like you, or some other interested adult teacher, to take their side just once, or at least to make some attempt to understand them. Anything that has happened up to now has done nothing but make them

Teen Job Agency Set
 Due to the fact that many high school students would like part time work, and the high school has no vocational co-op program, the guidance department has offered its services as a clearing house for individuals and businesses wishing to hire part time help.
 Any person interested in hiring students for clerking, babysitting, yard work, grocery store jobs, housework or other part time work may call Mrs. Beverly Sebastian at the high school 663-2231, and leave their name, phone number and job requirements. The requests will be matched with students who want that type of work and who fit the job requirements. Qualified students will then be referred to the person or company requesting help.
 The high school will make no actual placements or job promises, but merely inform students of the jobs available.
'CRUSADE' BEING HELD AT S.D.A.
 An evangelistic crusade started last week at the South Day Adventist church, led by the pastor, Ted Rasmussen, acting as the evangelist and illustrating his talks with black light drawings.
 Meetings are being held each Sunday and Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Distinctively new! Fastback or formal. Both '68 Chevrolet Impala coupes.

Some want the spirited, action-packed fastback look. Others prefer the poised and classic lines of the new Custom Coupe. The beauty of it is, from Chevrolet and only Chevrolet, you get both. Pick the one that's right for you and whichever great new style you choose, you'll also enjoy such exciting new quality features as (1) Chevrolet's quietest ride ever, because of Chevrolet's extensive use of electronic computers to help isolate noise and vibrations. (2) Better performance from a bigger standard V8 with GM's new exhaust emission control. (3) Proved safety features including many new ones. (4) All kinds of new comfort and convenience: rich new instrument panels, sumptuous new interiors. Chevrolet's best... ever!
