Lansing Road. Earl Norton spent a couple of days in Grand Rapids this week. Ed Bennett and Glen Arnold attended the Hillsdale fair Thursday.

Kingsland. Mrs. L. A. S. of Grace church will meet with Mrs. Emma Clark on the county line on Friday Oct. 18.

One Cold and Another. The season's first cold may be slight—may yield to early treatment, but the next cold will hang on longer; it will be more troublesome, too.

Plans to Get Rich. are often frustrated by sudden break-downs due to dyspepsia or constipation. Broke up and take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They take out the materials which are clogging your energies and give you a new start.

Three Bridges. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bunker have moved into their new house. Mr. and Mrs. Purdy of Mason, visited their daughter, Mrs. Floyd Bullen last Sunday.

Passenger Elevators. "He claims that he built the first passenger elevators used in this country."

Who Sold Her Way. "I have been asked to join the Married Men's club, my dear Mrs. Smith. And what do married men want a club for?"

Scott's Emulsion. when colds abound and you'll have no cold. Take it when the cold is contracted and it checks inflammation, heals the membranes of the throat and lungs and drives the cold out.

An Enormous Trout. Manistique, Mich., Oct. 11.—What is believed to be the largest trout ever caught in Michigan and brought to this port has been secured by the tug Burgher, of the Coffey fleet, from nets set in the waters of Barquet Point. The trout weighed 41 pounds and measured as follows: Length, 4 feet; circumference, 2 feet 7/8 inches. The tail at the widest point was just a foot across.

Flagman Fatally Hurt. Bay City, Mich., Oct. 11.—John Blacktop, a Pere Marquette flagman at Lapeere avenue, attempted to board a passenger train to go to his home. He was thrown under the wheels, his left arm ground off at the shoulder and his skull fractured. He was taken to the hospital, where he died.

Full of Tragic Meaning. are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from this terrible cough which he writes: "I had a fearful cough, that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which he never pleases cured me."

The Vanishing Home. People who know what a home is are not so many as might be supposed. Men and women alike are expected to join in the lament at its gradual disappearance. That it is going out of fashion there is not a doubt.

How to Increase Your Income. That is the question that has worried mankind since Adam was made a present of the calamity-making apple.

How to Increase Your Income. Alice Stouffer Green, widow of the late John Green, who was a self content in the same line, as the honors recorded her in England attest. She is a member of the committee of the London University, and of the board of the vice-presidents of the African society of University college, one of the board of governors of the School of Irish Learning, and of the board of the vice-presidents of the African society of University college, one of the board of governors of the School of Irish Learning, and of the board of the vice-presidents of the African society of University college.

A Dozen Times a Night. Mrs. Owen Dunn, of Denton Ferry, W. Va., writes: "I have had kidney and bladder trouble for years, and it became so bad that I was obliged to get up at least a dozen times a night. I never received any permanent benefit from any medicine until I tried Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles, I am cured!"

A Strange Recurrence For Astoria. Perhaps the most curious instance of voluntary hallucination is that recorded by an intimate friend of the great tragedian told him that when ever he entered on the stage he was accustomed by force of will to make his brilliant audience disappear and to substitute for them a house full of skeletons. The emotion which these ghastly creatures of his own imagination excited served, he declared, to give additional force to his own impersonations.

The Bow and Arrow. The first mention of the bow and arrow is found in the Book of Genesis, where it is written that Ishmael, the son of Abraham, dwelt in the wilderness and became an archer. "A bow shot," too, is mentioned as a measure of distance. In the equipped states of four or five thousand years ago, representations of archers frequently occur, and the bow seems to have been a weapon in the Assyrian and Persian armies.

You Can Easily Prove that KASKOLA TABLETS digest all kinds of food. Fill a glass about one-quarter full of chopped food of any kind, or all kinds, cover it with water, drop two Kaskola Tablets in same and keep warm (top) for at least one hour; the result will be a clear liquid.

Who among us doesn't like to be well-dressed? Plenty of men would like to, but imagine that it necessitates a tailor and a price which they can't afford. They have gone on from year to year buying the ordinary over-the-counter clothes—suits made in sweat shops, and designed by some inexperienced cutter at fifteen dollars a week.
