THE STATE ELECTIONS

The State Election - Showing the Fruitfulness of the State and Constitutional Voters.

LOCAL NEWS

Weather pleasant.
The cruel war is ended - till the
next election.

Justice - Legal and Moral

In our last issue we called attention to a judgment of about $1,700 rendered against our fellow-townman, Hon. Jas.
Gallery, and in favor of the National Exchange bank of Albion.

Fire - Burn Burn

On Tuesday evening, about 10:30 o'clock, an alarm of fire was given, which called our fire company out on the double-quick. It was found that the fire was about a mile north of town, on the farm of S. J. Vaughan.

A Simple Cure

Neighbor A. Strong claims that a few years ago, Mr. Gallery, with a number of other prominent citizens along the line of the railroad running from Jonesville to Lansing, (for the purpose of aiding in the enterprise of building a road, signed a note of $4,000, for the incidental expenses of organizing the company and keeping it alive for several years, none of those persons receiving any part of this money. It was distinctly understood and agreed, that if the road was ever built, the local aid on the line should be used first to pay that note.

THE STATE ELECTIONS

From the Evening News.
Late returns from the interior only show that the republican victory is even more complete than at first supposed. In some few scattering localities democratic nominees have laid out their opponents, and still fewer cases greenback county officials have been chosen; but there is not an indication of a "split" party county, ticket being elected entirely, or scarcely, of the leading candidates thereon being chosen, though their aggregate vote in the state has increased enormously, and strong trouble is 1878, unless the element of foolishness which controlled the nomination of such men as they put up for congressmen, governor and some other state officers will prevail.

LOCAL NEWS

Weather pleasant.
The cruel war is ended - till the
next election.
Hon. S. M. Wilkins, M. D. How is that for high?
Some snow and sharp frost on Wednesday night.
Several of our neighbors expect to visit Mekebas's soon.
Our neighbors over in Roxand have had a ghost excitement.
Services are held in the Episcopal church every alternate Sunday morning.
The era of falsehood is past till the next campaign. Now give us a rest.
The Congregationalists have put a new stove in the front room of their church.
The new sidewalk on the East side of Hall street is a great convenience to pedestrians.
Mr. Davenport has removed his saw-mill out of town and taken it to near Epiterville.
Only four of our townships gave Greenback majorities - viz: Bellevue, Oscoda, Brockfield and Delta.

WELL & MRS. FULLERTON

The clergyman was a quiet, peace-loving man, somewhat timid withal, and the minister always overpowered him with her arguments, when she attempted to do so. She stayed nearly half an hour with him, and at the expiration of that time people who were in the lobby saw her conveying the unhappy person in the direction, and, at last, through the very gate of Randall Cottage.

MRS. JELLYBY'S MATCH

"Mrs. Jellyby was at 6 one beautiful American, and, throwing open her chamber window, sniffed once or twice at the fragrance coming up from the room. In the garden behind them she saw a moment for her special eye upon the breast, and, putting them on, looked eagerly at Randall Cottage, over the way. A very moist, pretty little house it was, with red and orange growing under each window, and a small, neat, and seemingly climbing garden in front. The garden was not so good as the house, but it was a good creature—there's nothing wrong here. I'll have nothing to do with the matter. Say nothing, and let this pass as a dog's head."

The close of the century, however, was attended with great joy and gladness. Its echoes were reverberated throughout the civilized world. The grand results of the peace of Berlin, which was the result of the great triumph of the Prussian army over the French army, were the result of the brilliant achievements of English diplomacy, and Lord Bismarck was the acknowledged hero of the day.

The figures of commerce are not a temporary exhilaration, usually followed by a depression, and a general prostration of the system. Not only do the potent stimulants, but the medicinal value of the Bitters is essential to preserve that, and to strengthen their remedial value. For medicinal purposes, the Bitters is the most reliable and most successful of all the remedies of the medical art.
