VFW Buddy Poppy Sale Next Week

During the week prior to Memorial day, ever since 1922, local posts of the Veterans of Foreign Wars have sponsored the distribution of the VFW Buddy poppies. The proceeds of this sale have always been used exclusively to maintain welfare activities in behalf of disabled and needy ex-service men and their dependents. One cent from the sale of each Buddy Poppy goes to the VFW National home.

Approximately 75,000 Buddy Poppies are made each week by disabled ex-service men, patients in U. S. government hospitals throughout the country. These disabled veterans are paid by the VFW for this labor. Such money represents, in most cases, the only money these men are able to earn in the whole year.

With the nation at war, a portion of the VFW proceeds will help finance welfare activities among the men in service and their families.

King Strawberry Has His Day

Whether you live in the South, the West, the East, or the North, strawberries will have an important place in your victory gardens. Here you see a gardenist who is a druggist setting out strawberry plants after work. Last year on a half-acre plot only 25 1/2 bushels were raised enough vegetables to feed a family of four.

It Takes Milk To Make Strong Soldiers

Hold that pail carefully, Private Horton! If you spill it, some American soldier will not get the 374 quarts of milk that he needs in 1943. Charles Stiles, a teen-age farm boy, is doing his best to help meet the 1943 milk production goal of 57 BILLION QUARTS.

On and off for two winters, the old farmer had been shouting encouragement to the neighborhood boys. In a Rubie Goldberg contraption consisting of two sleds and an old engine, the lad had been vainly trying to climb a steep incline leading to the woods. Finally, the young farmer rapped into the house crying to his wife: "He's made it! He's made it! I know he'd do it!"

Deed Away Property — Same Old Story

The old story of deeding away one's property for the promise of a better life is the usual sequel again. Eber Blais of Eaton Rapids is 84 years old. Mrs. Blais is 84 years old. Mr. Blais and his wife, who were related to his wife, by which he deeded his home at 820 Pearl street on November 12, retaining a life interest, in their property to provide for himself and his wife, a pleasurable and comfortable home-ownership would be cared and provided for by them, he avers. The defendant charged that defendants not only moved into the home but also moved in other individuals together with a lot of dogs and as a result of the premises generally, irrespective of plaintiffs and days became unbearable. When notified to move out they refused to do so until compelled by a circuit court commissioner order to execute a deed of conveyance to the plaintiffs. The defendant who now seeks a court order to that effect, also an injunction restraining defendants from encumbering the property in the meantime.
