ARMY COBBLER—How the shoemakers at Valley Forge would have envied the United States soldiers of today when the Army carries to the field every facility for keeping footware whole and comfortable!

Canada's Farmers Winning Food Production Battle To Feed United Nations Despite Wartime Problems

ONE of the vital divisions of Canada's war effort is the production and shipment of agricultural products. When England's continental food sources were invaded, Canada became its main source of food supply. To meet the expanded demand, the Dominion has achieved an output described as "little short of miraculous."

By grazing by Government inspectors, every pound of wool from the sheep shipped to England is known to be up to standard.
