THE WORLD'S NEWS

BY A STRANGER.

...Word has been received from Gilford of a mysterious death. The body was found in a half-way house, a mile and a half north of Gilford, and was called on a neighbor. She left her house at about 10 o'clock Saturday morning, after being out for twenty minutes. She returned at 11 o'clock, and found a bullet hole through her forehead. The children told their mother that a stranger man wearing a cap had come into the house and gone to the trunk where the revolver was kept. He had taken it out, they said, and locked the trunk. The woman then called for help, and a neighbor came to her aid. The stranger fled, and the woman was taken to the hospital. The police are searching for the man who shot her.

HE BURNED-BURNS.

Martin Rommel, White Hawk, acknowledged a serious crime. The burns and the loss of his property were the result of a fire that broke out in the night. The fire was caused by a candle that had been left burning. The fire spread rapidly, and the house was completely destroyed. The loss was estimated at $10,000. The insurance company is paying the claim.

TEACHERS OF MICHIGAN.

LANSING, Dec. 6.—The programme for the annual meeting of the Michigan Teachers' Association, December 10-12, has been completed. The meeting will begin with the president's address Tuesday afternoon, and in the evening the teachers will be welcomed to Lansing by Mayor Bennett and will be entertained in the reception parlors by Gov. Rich. In connection with the meeting the state association there will be an exhibit of the work of the schools of the state.

TRADES UNIONS MET AT BATTLE CREEK.

BATTLE CREEK, Dec. 6.—The Michigan State Federation of Labor opened its sixth annual convention here Tuesday. Trades unions from all parts of Michigan are represented. The day was devoted to organization, annual addresses and reports. John D. Flanagan, of Grand Rapids, president of the federation, urged in his address female suffrage and a more active part in politics by wage workers.

INTERESTING MINE RESUME.

LANSING, Dec. 5.—Shafis 6 and 7 of the Lake Superior company received work with a full force Monday morning. Superintendant Charles Hall says that he anticipates employing a force of 1,000 to 200 men by the first of the year. Some of the miners at Winthrop are still out and demand a guaranty of one dollar per diem on contract work.

GOV. RICH SPEAKS AT MUSKOGEE.

MUSKOGEE, Dec. 6.—Gov. Rich delivered a thoughtful address before the state board of corrections and charities at the opera house here Tuesday night. Among the prominent men in attendance at the convention were Justice Grant, Lansing; Bishop Gillespie, Grand Rapids; Dr. J. H. Willing, and J. E. St. John, Lansing.

A VIET OF APPEAL.

KALAMAZOO, Dec. 3.—While Hiram Miller, a retired banker, was out on his neighboring Monday afternoon pedestrians saw his head fall forward. When assistance reached him he was found dead from apoplexy. Mr. Miller was 70 years old and leaves a large property. His case here three years ago from Troy, N. Y.

COULD NOT AGREE.

LANSING, Dec. 3.—The jury in the famous Smith kidnapping purifier case, which involves nearly half a million of dollars, came in at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, after being out for twenty hours. They disagreed. Smith charged fraud in the closing of the big factory at Jackson.

HEARD HIMSELF.
